Those who try to hold on to their lives, ✠ remain prisoners of death.
But those who lose their lives for the Lord, ✠ rise again to new life.
The rich, arrogant, and powerful ✠ are torn down from their thrones.
But the poor, humble, and meek ✠ inherit the whole earth.

Song ✠ “When I Survey the Wondrous Cross” (Tune: LSB 425)

♫ When I survey the wondrous cross on which the prince of glory died, my richest gain I count but loss, and pour contempt on all my pride.
♫ Forbid it Lord that I should boast, save in the death of Christ my Lord! All the empty things I love most, I give up all that I have stored.
♫ See from his head, his hands, his feet, sorrow and love flow mingled down. Did e’er such love and sorrow meet, or thorns compose so rich a crown?
♫ Were the whole realm of creation mine, that would be a gift far too small. Love so amazing, so divine, demands my soul, my life, my all.
